Issue 52 Volume 1 January 2025

For fun and fellowship

Hello Handicapped Travel Club Members,

As we usher out 2024 and welcome 2025 let's keep in mind our G.O.A.L to Get Out And Live.

I want to tip my hat to those of you who RV full time, what an exciting way to live.

In our situations in life the easy thing would be to become a real homebody where everything is routine and familiar, however when you can get behind the wheel and move from place to place and experience new surroundings at will, life stays exciting. Not to say this is always an easy way to live, there is definately some real work involved to make this a way of life and not everyone is cut out for that lifestyle.

There are more options and opportunities for those of us with challenges than any other time in history and the fact that so many people are utilizing those options is encouraging to me.

Whether it is a large accessible class A, an accessible van, a motel room or anything in between, lets all enjoy our sense of adventure and get out there and live 2025 to the fullest.

Please contact me if you have thoughts to share, questions to ask, improvements to be made, etc. (President@handicappedtravelclub.com).

Warm Regards,

Loretta Spotts Club President Handicapped Travel Club

HTC 2025 Annual Rally

Cody, Wyoming

TBD: Late August - Early September

The 2025 HTC Annual Rally is in the planning stages. The Rally was going to be held in the Eastern Region, however, the search for a Eastern Region wagon master was unsuccessful. Fortunately, we have Mark and Karen Neuhror who have kindly volunteered to be our wagon masters. Rally locations in Cody, Wyoming are currently being explored. More information to follow when campgrounds in the Cody area re-open after winter, see future newsletters for more information.
